

July 30, 2010

New Hope For Orphans

Phnom Penh Children's home

Heng Srey Leab's new life with God

God is good God, he bless to many people and recently he bless to Heng Srey Leab to be a good smart student in her school. Before coming to Phnom Penh children's home, she used to live with the neighbors and they didn't like her they always drove her to do the work a lot. One day, the driver pitied her and brought her to New for Orphans. Since living here, Srey Leab studies hard until becoming a smart student at her school, on the other hand, this month, she received the outstanding Achievement Award from her school. Srey Leab said that, " I thank God so much for blessing me the wisdom".

Heng Srey Leab is holding the outstanding Achievement Award from her school.

Heng Srey Leab is receiving the outstanding achievement award from Excellency of ministry of youth and sport of Cambodian government.

This is the certificate of Heang srey Leab that just received from her school.

Moun Savada 's new life with God

Moun savada has a sister who live with him at the Phnom Penh children's home. Her name is Moun Rathana. Before coming to live here, he lived in Phnom Penh with his HIV mother. When he lives here , he tries to study hard so much, and this month he received the outstanding achievement award from his school. He said that, " he wants to be a professor for the university in the future. When he was young, his vision is a professor. God will help him to accomplish his vision. He is happy with his certificate and he thanks God

Pastor, Jacy passed the certificate to Moun Savada at school.

Request prayer

Pray for the them so that they have the wisdom from God.

Pray for them so that they have the good health from God.

Pray for them so that they have the safe in traveling to their school.

Pray for beds , so that they have the bed to sleep at new building because they will move to soon.

Sean Socheata is an orphan, living at the Phnom Pneh children 's home, and she is smiling to our camera.

Tho Edan is a boy living at Phnom Penh children's home. Nowadays he is studying at the new life school with some children.

Beside of studying at the school, Phnom Penh children joined with the service Sunday. This photo, they are dancing for service Sunday.