

N.H.O

Phnom Penh Children's home

Dedication

October 19, 2010

The activities were before the date of dedication of new buildings

Before the date of dedication of Phnom Penh's new building, the children were all busy with their duty cleaning the whole new building. The children had been supparated as many teams. Some team cleaned in the first floor's room and some cleaned at the second floor's room, third floor's room, fourth floor's room and fifth floor's room. Some children helped to arrange the photos to put on the wall to show the Korean delegation, and National guest.

The staff were all busy with their duty as designing the photos, and some staff picked up the visitors at the airport at 12 PM and then they continued to write the statement for Ps Sinai for the opening the new building.

The boys from the Student Center, they worked hard with cutting the grass behind the Phnom Penh new building. During that time, some boys sang the Christian song to praise the LORD because he gave them the nice building for their sisters and brothers. They stood to look at the new building with smiling and thought that this building is the blessing from God.

The Phnom Penh children started dancing the traditional dancer for opening the new building.

After dancing, they took the photo with Sokhom at the new building